

Arts Illustrated

Wednesday the 18th at 9PM and Sunday the 22nd at 2PM

"Los Angeles' flourishing cultural and artistic life is gaining worldwide attention," notes Stephen Kulczycki, KCET's vice-president of programming, "just at the time when KCET can present an arts magazine—not just once a year—but once every quarter. Arts Illustrated explores the complex and wonderful arts activities that are occurring right now in Los Angeles. Our capsulated broadcasts will actively focus on the works of creators, allowing you to ride the tide of events and to meet the people involved." Hosted by writer/critic Hunter Drohojowska and writer/producer Roger Bingham, the first edition takes you to a performance of The Grand Kabuki, to the Maya exhibit and to the L.A. Theatre Center's opening. Travelling south, Arts Illustrated visits the La Jolla Playhouse and looks in on the 50th anniversary celebration of San Diego's Old Globe Theatre. Plus a revealing interview with Drama Critic Award winner Andrew (In the Belly of the Beast) Robinson and much, more more. The insightful and timely quarterly will keep you in the know.

Arts Illustrated hosts Hunter Drohojowska and Roger Bingham

Carl Reiner

Carl Reiner's The Light Stuff

Saturday the 21st at 8PM and Wednesday the 25th at 10:30PM

Ever wonder where a comedian's sense of humor comes from? "Most comedians would agree that it's pointless to analyze what makes something funny. But what makes a comedian?" asks Carl Reiner, the dean of American comedy. "What forces shape a person's sense of humor into a well-defined talent for comedy?" As host of KCET's hilarious special, Reiner provides answers to these questions with the help of David Brenner, Whoopi Goldberg, Phyllis Diller, Albert Brooks, Paul Rodriguez and Jerry Seinfeld through interviews and in performances. Clips of Chaplin, Keaton and other legendary performers enhance our understanding of why some individuals are compelled to "Make 'Em Laugh." The KCET production was directed by Jim Washburn; executive producer, Julian Fowles, and producer, Martin Kent.

KCET Lights Up Your Holiday

With Stellar Programs, and a Special Gift Giveaway!

You could win an extraordinary Caribbean cruise for two from Sun Line Cruises, New York. View Halley's Comet from the deck with your host, astronaut Scott Carpenter, en route to Rio de Janeiro...or you could win a pair of season tickets to the Hollywood Bowl...or a limited edition KCET logo lapel pin...just by entering KCET's Holiday Giveaway!

Look for KCET'S
Holiday Message
in Your Mail

And Help Light
Up Your TV Screen
All Year Long!